

CIVIL ENGINEERING PROGRAM CVE 372 HYDROMECHANICS

LAB REPORT GUIDELINE

Please take the followings into consideration before writing your lab report.

1. General

- Passive voice should be used in the report. Expressions such as “I”, “We”, “My”, “Our”, etc. should not be used.
- Both hand writing and computer typing is acceptable,
- One side of each paper must be used.

2. Title Page

The title page should be the first page without page numbering. The following information should be provided on the title page:

- Middle East Technical University - Northern Cyprus Campus
- Department of Civil Engineering
- CVE 372 Hydromechanics
- Laboratory #
- Name of the Experiment
- Submitted to:
- Submitted by:
- Data of the Lab

3. Sections

- Objective(s): It should be stated what the lab is for (objective of this experiment).
- Theory: Include the theory
- Explanation of the experiment:
 - Procedure: Give brief explanation about the procedure of the experiment.
 - Equipment: Explain all equipments that were used during the lab.
 - Sketch: Drawings that can be used in the explanation of the lab. Drawing or picture of the equipments could be included.
- Calculations and Results: Include tables and graphs (if applicable) for your calculations.
- Discussion of Results: Discuss your results. If the report questions are given answer those questions in this section.
- Conclusions: Write your concluding remarks.